Introducing the NEW JacquardProducts.com:

A Complete Website Re-design for 2019!

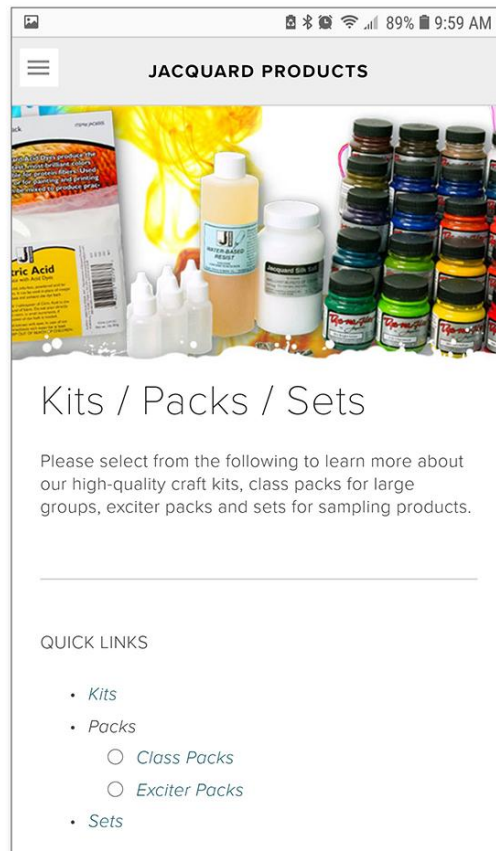

Healdsburg, CA (January 25, 2019)

If you have ever browsed JacquardProducts.com, you have probably noticed that it is a massive website: with over 400 pages, there is always more to discover and explore. Over the years, we packed the website with more and more product information, technical guides & resources, project tutorials, artist galleries, community listings, a Forum and a Store Locator, and it quickly became an indispensable resource for artists, especially those with a bent for textiles.

At some point, the site seemed to outgrow itself, so we decided to refresh it with a complete rebuild. We couldn't be happier with the results! The NEW JacquardProducts.com is everything you've ever wanted it to be: mobile-friendly and easily navigable with a modern look and feel, improved functionality, and even more content than ever!

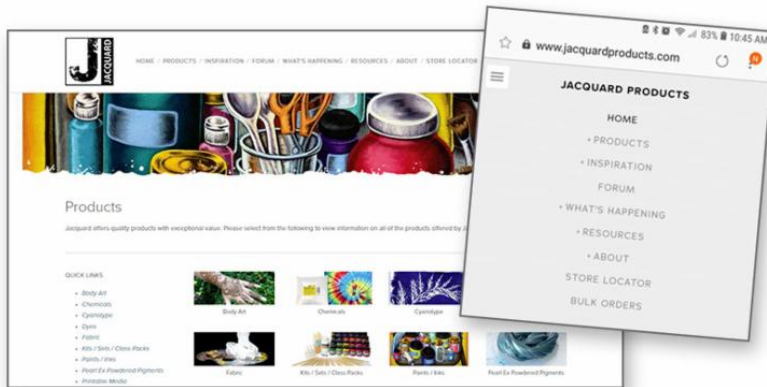

We are very excited to announce the launch of our newly re-designed Jacquard website: www.jacquardproducts.com!

Check out some of the NEW FEATURES:

Mobile-friendly

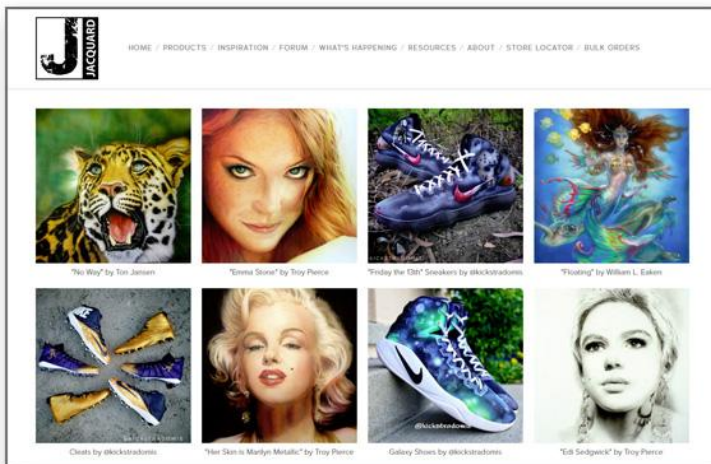

Access the website from your phone, tablet or desktop. The new layout design and functionality is optimized for both desktop and mobile viewing, so everything you are looking for is just a tap or a click away!

Intuitive Navigation & Organization

Eye-catching thumbnails illustrate what's next, and the text links provide fast navigation. Every image is clickable for magnified viewing.
