

This project combines the magic of deColourant and hand embroidery for a one-of-a-kind pillow. Experiment with the layout of the motif and the embroidery stitches to create your own look! Instructions are included to create your own pillow insert, or simply purchase a premade insert. You also have the option of using premade piping or creating your own piping.